

Crime Scene Images from the Bexar County Sheriff's Office

On October 7, Jiryiah Johnson, 1-year old, was fatally attacked by multiple XL bullies while under the care of his babysitter. Heather Rodriguez, 36, the babysitter and owner of the dogs, was arrested and charged with serious bodily injury by omission. The attack occurred at Rodriguez's home in the 9700 block of Spruce Ridge Drive.

Learn more:

<https://blog.dogsbite.org/2024/10/babysitters-xl-pit-bulls-kill-baby-attack-teenager-bexar-county.html>

©Bexar County Sheriff's Office - Photo shows inside of the Converse home where the baby was killed by XL bullies belonging to her babysitter. This is the door, which had been previously damaged by the dogs, the dogs broke through to attack the baby.

©Bexar County Sheriff's Office - Photo shows inside of the Converse home where the baby was killed by XL bullies belonging to her babysitter. This is the door, which had been previously damaged by the dogs, the dogs broke through to attack the baby.

©Bexar County Sheriff's Office - Photo shows inside of the Converse home where the baby was killed by XL bullies belonging to her babysitter. The stairs leading the room where the baby was were badly worn, damaged and soiled to the point of dilapidation.

©Bexar County Sheriff's Office - Photo shows inside of the Converse home where the baby was killed by XL bullies belonging to her babysitter. One of the doors smeared with blood. The teen ran room-to-room with the baby in her arms trying to escape the dogs.

©Bexar County Sheriff's Office - Photo shows inside of the Converse home where the baby was killed by XL bullies belonging to her babysitter. The dogs broke into the room and snatched the baby that was lying on the bed. Blood marks the spot on the bed.